Gambling with Health Care: Losing your job is a blow not just to your income, but also to your health insurance. Many can't afford high COBRA premiums, much less private insurance. And the sputtering economy is making a bad situation tragic. NOW travels to Nevada, where a huge budget deficit, spiking unemployment, and cuts in Medicaid and other public services are forcing people to gamble with their own lives. Recently, the only public hospital in Las Vegas had to shut its doors to cancer patients and pregnant women. Should the government be helping out? NOW shares the human stories behind the distressing numbers, and investigates possible solutions and responses with insight from Dr. Howard Dean, former Vermont governor and chairman of the Democratic National Committee. With the economic disaster blowing holes in society's health care safety net, who's left to catch our fall?

Gambling with Health Care: Losing your job is a blow not just to your income, but also to your health insurance. Many can't afford high COBRA premiums, much less private insurance. And the sputtering economy is making a bad situation tragic. NOW travels to Nevada, where a huge budget deficit, spiking unemployment, and cuts in Medicaid and other public services are forcing people to gamble with their own lives. Recently, the only public hospital in Las Vegas had to shut its doors to cancer patients and pregnant women. Should the government be helping out? NOW shares the human stories behind the distressing numbers, and investigates possible solutions and responses with insight from Dr. Howard Dean, former Vermont governor and chairman of the Democratic National Committee. With the economic disaster blowing holes in society's health care safety net, who's left to catch our fall?

Six months in, is the president truly hitting a rough patch, or are the White House and the Congress in a standoff? We take a look, tonight on Washington Week. As the president's popularity begins to slide, the test narrows down to the future of health care. Pres. Barack Obama said, "Nobody is talking about some government takeover of health care. I'm tired of hearing that." Sen. Harry Reid (D-NV) said, "The only problem we have with having a bipartisan bill is the Republican leadership in the Senate." Sen. Mitch McConnell (R-KY) said, "Some in Congress seem to be in such a rush--such a rush to pass any reform rather than the right reform." Sen. Chuck Grassley (R-IA) said, "The trouble is you folks are looking for news and there ain't no news." But there has been news and it's all about complicated choices, whether it's about reviving the economy. Pres. Obama said, "We now have problems. We're going to have to tighten our belt. But we can't do it in the middle of the stimulus. We can't do it in the middle--just as the economy is coming out of recession. Sen. Jim Demint (R-SC) said, "He's taken a bad economy and made it worse." Or tackling racial reconciliation by photo-op, whatever happened to the summer doldrums?. A surprise report on unemployment, the debate of health care reform begins in earnest across America, and Bill Clinton's excellent adventure. I'm John Dickerson, sitting in for Gwen Ifill, tonight on Washington Week. Tempered optimism on the economy. Pres. Barack Obama, said, "This morning we received additional signs that the worst may be behind us." From brighter unemployment news, to showrooms conducting commerce again, the economy seems to be on the rebound, but is it the president's doing? The debate over health care moves from Washington. Sen. Jim Demint said, "The Democrats are fighting any real health care reform. They're insistent on a single-payer government takeover." To the heartland, where it's gotten noisy. Sen. Harry Reid said, "In spite of those loud, shrill voices trying to interrupt town hall meetings and just throwing a monkey wrench into everything, we're going to continue to be positive and work hard." Is August make or break time for health care reform? And the secret mission to North Korea by Bill Clinton.

Presidential rumor control in the health care debate, calling the shots in the battle against swine flu, Hillary Clinton's mission to Africa, and what's next for Afghanistan. I'm Pete Williams sitting in for Gwen Ifill, tonight on Washington Week. The president takes to the road to put out wildfires over health care reform. Pres. Barack Obama said, "The way politics works sometimes is that people who want to keep things the way they are will try to scare the heck out of folks." How fear about an end-of-life provision has become the viral talking point in the reform debate. The start of the school year also means flu season is just around the corner. The younger individuals and pregnant women appear to be much more vulnerable to serious disease. The government's plan to get ahead of the swine flu virus. Hillary Clinton spends 11 days in Africa, but was it a lost-in-translation moment that overshadowed her mission? Secretary of State Hillary Clinton said, "Wait, you want me to tell you what my husband thinks? My husband is not the secretary of state. I am." Questions of substance and standing for the secretary of state. And while U.S. troops drawdown in Iraq, the fighting intensifies in Afghanistan on the eve of presidential elections there. Secretary of Defense Robert Gates said, "They're obviously holding an election in adverse circumstances. How the Taliban is forcing changes in U.S. strategy. Presidential rumor control in the health care debate, calling the shots in the battle against swine flu, Hillary Clinton's mission to Africa, and what's next for Afghanistan. I'm Pete Williams sitting in for Gwen Ifill, tonight on Washington Week. The president takes to the road to put out wildfires over health care reform. Pres. Barack Obama said, "The way politics works sometimes is that people who want to keep things the way they are will try to scare the heck out of folks." How fear about an end-of-life provision has become the viral talking point in the reform debate. The start of the school year also means flu season is just around the corner. The younger individuals and pregnant women appear to be much more vulnerable to serious disease. The government's plan to get ahead of the swine flu virus. Hillary Clinton spends 11 days in Africa, but was it a lost-in-translation moment that overshadowed her mission? Secretary of State Hillary Clinton said, "Wait, you want me to tell you what my husband thinks? My husband is not the secretary of state. I am." Questions of substance and standing for the secretary of state. And while U.S. troops drawdown in Iraq, the fighting intensifies in Afghanistan on the eve of presidential elections there. Secretary of Defense Robert Gates said, "They're obviously holding an election in adverse circumstances. How the Taliban is forcing changes in U.S. strategy. Covering these stories this week: Janet Hook of the Los Angeles Times, Michael Duffy of Time Magazine, Janine Zacharia of Bloomberg News, and James Kitfield of National Journal.

Gambling with Health Care: Losing your job is a blow not just to your income, but also to your health insurance. Many can't afford high COBRA premiums, much less private insurance. And the sputtering economy is making a bad situation tragic. NOW travels to Nevada, where a huge budget deficit, spiking unemployment, and cuts in Medicaid and other public services are forcing people to gamble with their own lives. Recently, the only public hospital in Las Vegas had to shut its doors to cancer patients and pregnant women. Should the government be helping out? NOW shares the human stories behind the distressing numbers, and investigates possible solutions and responses with insight from Dr. Howard Dean, former Vermont governor and chairman of the Democratic National Committee. With the economic disaster blowing holes in society's health care safety net, who's left to catch our fall?

Six months in, is the president truly hitting a rough patch, or are the White House and the Congress in a standoff? We take a look, tonight on Washington Week. As the president's popularity begins to slide, the test narrows down to the future of health care. Pres. Barack Obama said, "Nobody is talking about some government takeover of health care. I'm tired of hearing that." Sen. Harry Reid (D-NV) said, "The only problem we have with having a bipartisan bill is the Republican leadership in the Senate." Sen. Mitch McConnell (R-KY) said, "Some in Congress seem to be in such a rush--such a rush to pass any reform rather than the right reform." Sen. Chuck Grassley (R-IA) said, "The trouble is you folks are looking for news and there ain't no news." But there has been news and it's all about complicated choices, whether it's about reviving the economy. Pres. Obama said, "We now have problems. We're going to have to tighten our belt. But we can't do it in the middle of the stimulus. We can't do it in the middle--just as the economy is coming out of recession. Sen. Jim Demint (R-SC) said, "He's taken a bad economy and made it worse." Or tackling racial reconciliation by photo-op, whatever happened to the summer doldrums?. I'm John Dickerson, sitting in for Gwen Ifill, tonight on Washington Week. Tempered optimism on the economy. Pres. Barack Obama, said, "This morning we received additional signs that the worst may be behind us." From brighter unemployment news, to showrooms conducting commerce again, the economy seems to be on the rebound, but is it the president's doing? The debate over health care moves from Washington. Sen. Jim Demint said, "The Democrats are fighting any real health care reform. They're insistent on a single-payer government takeover." To the heartland, where it's gotten noisy. Sen. Harry Reid said, "In spite of those loud, shrill voices trying to interrupt town hall meetings and just throwing a monkey wrench into everything, we're going to continue to be positive and work hard." Is August make or break time for health care reform? And the secret mission to North Korea by Bill Clinton. Does the release of two captured journalists signal a thaw with the reclusive Korean leader? Covering these stories this week John Harwood of CNBC and the New York Times, Peter Baker of the New York Times, and Martha Raddatz of ABC News.

Presidential rumor control in the health care debate, calling the shots in the battle against swine flu, Hillary Clinton's mission to Africa, and what's next for Afghanistan. I'm Pete Williams sitting in for Gwen Ifill, tonight on Washington Week. The president takes to the road to put out wildfires over health care reform. Pres. Barack Obama said, "The way politics works sometimes is that people who want to keep things the way they are will try to scare the heck out of folks." How fear about an end-of-life provision has become the viral talking point in the reform debate. The start of the school year also means flu season is just around the corner. The younger individuals and pregnant women appear to be much more vulnerable to serious disease. The government's plan to get ahead of the swine flu virus. Hillary Clinton spends 11 days in Africa, but was it a lost-in-translation moment that overshadowed her mission? Secretary of State Hillary Clinton said, "Wait, you want me to tell you what my husband thinks? My husband is not the secretary of state. I am." Questions of substance and standing for the secretary of state. And while U.S. troops drawdown in Iraq, the fighting intensifies in Afghanistan on the eve of presidential elections there. Secretary of Defense Robert Gates said, "They're obviously holding an election in adverse circumstances. How the Taliban is forcing changes in U.S. strategy. Six months in, is the president truly hitting a rough patch, or are the White House and the Congress in a standoff? We take a look, tonight on Washington Week. As the president's popularity begins to slide, the test narrows down to the future of health care. Pres. Barack Obama said, "Nobody is talking about some government takeover of health care. I'm tired of hearing that." Sen. Harry Reid (D-NV) said, "The only problem we have with having a bipartisan bill is the Republican leadership in the Senate." Sen. Mitch McConnell (R-KY) said, "Some in Congress seem to be in such a rush--such a rush to pass any reform rather than the right reform." Sen. Chuck Grassley (R-IA) said, "The trouble is you folks are looking for news and there ain't no news." But there has been news and it's all about complicated choices, whether it's about reviving the economy. Pres. Obama said, "We now have problems. We're going to have to tighten our belt. But we can't do it in the middle of the stimulus. We can't do it in the middle--just as the economy is coming out of recession. Sen. Jim Demint (R-SC) said, "He's taken a bad economy and made it worse." Or tackling racial reconciliation by photo-op, whatever happened to the summer doldrums?. Six months in, is the president truly hitting a rough patch, or are the White House and the Congress in a standoff? We take a look, tonight on Washington Week. As the president's popularity begins to slide, the test narrows down to the future of health care. Pres. Barack Obama said, "Nobody is talking about some government takeover of health care. I'm tired of hearing that." Sen. Harry Reid (D-NV) said, "The only problem we have with having a bipartisan bill is the Republican leadership in the Senate." Sen. Mitch McConnell (R-KY) said, "Some in Congress seem to be in such a rush--such a rush to pass any reform rather than the right reform." Sen. Chuck Grassley (R-IA) said, "The trouble is you folks are looking for news and there ain't no news." But there has been news and it's all about complicated choices, whether it's about reviving the economy. Pres. Obama said, "We now have problems. We're going to have to tighten our belt. But we can't do it in the middle of the stimulus. We can't do it in the middle--just as the economy is coming out of recession. Sen. Jim Demint (R-SC) said, "He's taken a bad economy and made it worse." Or tackling racial reconciliation by photo-op, whatever happened to the summer doldrums?. A surprise report on unemployment, the debate of health care reform begins in earnest across America, and Bill Clinton's excellent adventure. I'm John Dickerson, sitting in for Gwen Ifill, tonight on Washington Week. Tempered optimism on the economy. Pres. Barack Obama, said, "This morning we received additional signs that the worst may be behind us." From brighter unemployment news, to showrooms conducting commerce again, the economy seems to be on the rebound, but is it the president's doing? The debate over health care moves from Washington. Sen. Jim Demint said, "The Democrats are fighting any real health care reform. They're insistent on a single-payer government takeover." To the heartland, where it's gotten noisy. Sen. Harry Reid said, "In spite of those loud, shrill voices trying to interrupt town hall meetings and just throwing a monkey wrench into everything, we're going to continue to be positive and work hard." Is August make or break time for health care reform? And the secret mission to North Korea by Bill Clinton. Does the release of two captured journalists signal a thaw with the reclusive Korean leader? Presidential rumor control in the health care debate, calling the shots in the battle against swine flu, Hillary Clinton's mission to Africa, and what's next for Afghanistan. I'm Pete Williams sitting in for Gwen Ifill, tonight on Washington Week. The president takes to the road to put out wildfires over health care reform. Pres. Barack Obama said, "The way politics works sometimes is that people who want to keep things the way they are will try to scare the heck out of folks." How fear about an end-of-life provision has become the viral talking point in the reform debate. The start of the school year also means flu season is just around the corner. The younger individuals and pregnant women appear to be much more vulnerable to serious disease. The government's plan to get ahead of the swine flu virus. Hillary Clinton spends 11 days in Africa, but was it a lost-in-translation moment that overshadowed her mission? Secretary of State Hillary Clinton said, "Wait, you want me to tell you what my husband thinks? My husband is not the secretary of state. I am." Questions of substance and standing for the secretary of state. And while U.S. troops drawdown in Iraq, the fighting intensifies in Afghanistan on the eve of presidential elections there. Secretary of Defense Robert Gates said, "They're obviously holding an election in adverse circumstances. How the Taliban is forcing changes in U.S. strategy.
