5 Kevin Whately returns as Inspector Lewis in a third season of the popular detective series. In five new episodes of Masterpiece Theater, Lewis and his young partner, DS Hathaway (Laurence Fox, "A Room With a View"), continue solving cases in the seemingly perfect academic haven of Oxford. Alan Cumming hosts. Sundays, Sept. 5, 12, 19, 26, at 8 p.m.

8 Each month, KLRU chooses a program for your family to enjoy together. This month's Family Choice program is Through A Dog's Eyes on Wednesday, Sept. 8, at 7 p.m. and Sunday, Sept. 12, at 6 p.m. This program is about dog trainer Jennifer Arnold, the service dogs she trains and the families whose lives they have changed. Arnold's non-profit organization, Canine Assistants, trains dogs to assist people with a variety of disabilities. The film also presents the science that explains the amazing dog/human bond.  Family Choice

Latin Music USA highlights the great American music created by Latinos, and celebrates the Latin rhythms at the heart of jazz, rock, country, and rhythm and blues. It's a fresh take on American musical history, reaching across five decades to portray the rich mix of sounds created by Latinos and embraced by all. Wednesdays, Sept. 8 & 15, at 8 p.m.

9 KLRU Community Screenings in conjunction with the Briscoe Center for American History presents a preview of the powerful documentary When I Rise on Thursday, Sept. 9 at 7:30 p.m. in KLRU's Studio 6A. An inspirational journey toward finding forgiveness within oneself, When I Rise is a powerful documentary set in Texas. A gifted black music student at the University of Texas is thrust into a civil rights storm that changes her life forever. Barbara Smith Conrad is cast in an opera to co-star with a white male classmate, fueling a racist backlash from members of the Texas legislature. Conrad goes on to become an internationally celebrated mezzo-soprano and headlines on stages around the world.

Join host Marco Werman and the Sound Tracks reporting team as they travel deep into the heart of international music. Meet the living legacy of superstar Afrobeat creator Fela. Examine the raging popularity of Vladimir Putin's sexy propaganda song. Find out if music can help the creators of Borat make amends with the insulted people of Kazakhstan, and capture the mood of a cozy Portuguese bar with diva Mariza. Thursday, Sept. 9, at 8 p.m.

22 Live from Lincoln Center joins Maestro Alan Gilbert for the opening night concert of his second season. Maestro Gilbert conducts the U.S. premiere of Wynton Marsalis's new work, "Swing Symphony" for the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra and the New York Philharmonic, as well as Richard Strauss's "Don Juan" and Hindemith's "Symphonic Metamorphoses on Themes by Carl Maria von Weber." Wednesday, Sept. 22, at 8 p.m.

28 Ken Burns' Tenth Inning is the follow up to his Baseball series. In 1994, baseball faced its worst crisis in 70 years when a prolonged strike alienates many of the most loyal fans. Baseball has to rebuild. And rebuild it does, with new stadiums, an infusion of new players from Latin America and the shattering of historic records. Tuesday, Sept. 28, Wednesday, Sept. 29, at 8 p.m.

30 In Context "Classical Guitar" performances from the Guitar Foundation of America's annual convention and competition, the largest gathering of the classical guitar industry in the world. Thursday, Sept. 30, at 8 p.m.
