february Highlights

2

KLRU announces an expansive slate of events and programs profiling the rich history, culture and contributions of African-Americans in honor of Black History Month. The programs air as part of KLRU's celebration of Black History Month, February 2012. With new programs that delve into the archives of history, this year's schedule provides an in-depth look at a variety of historical events from the post-Emancipation era to the rise of the black power movement. Programs include February 2 at 9 p.m. Independent Lens "Daisy Bates: First Lady of Little Rock"; February 6 at 9 p.m. Underground Railroad: The William Still Story; February 7 at 7 p.m. Freedom Riders: An American Experience; February 9 at 9 p.m. Independent Lens "Black Power Mixtape 1967-1975". For a complete list visit KLRU.org

3

Michael Feinstein's American Songbook is a documentary-style road trip and cultural primer with Michael Feinstein as the leader of an expedition through the history of American popular song. Rare archival audio and film footage combine to reveal the social and historical forces behind the music that helped shape the style, attitude, and self-image of America for more than a century. Fridays at 9 pm Feb. 3, 10, 17

Light/The Holocaust & Humanity Project is a city-wide Holocaust education partnership that promotes the protection of human rights against bigotry and hate through arts, education, and public dialogue. The project, lead by the Austin Ballet, goes from Martin Luther King Jr. Day (January 15) through Yom HaShoah or Holocaust Remembrance Day (April 19), with events/initiatives led by more than 30 community partners. KLRU Light /The Holocaust & Humanity Project Special programming airs each Sunday at 1 pm in February. The programs are: 2/5 Irena Sendler: In The Name Of Their Mothers; 2/12 Not In Our Town: Light In The Darkness; 2/19 Not In Our Town: Class Actions; 2/26 Teenage Witness: The Fanya Gottesfeld Heller Story. Find out more about the Light/The Holocaust & Humanity Project at KLRU.org.

Each month, KLRU chooses a program for your family to enjoy together. This month's Family Choice program is Nature "Raccoon Nation" on Wednesday, Feb. 8, at 7 pm.

 Family Choice

Are we, in an effort to outwit raccoons, actually making them smarter and unwittingly contributing to their evolutionary success? In this film, scientists from around the world share their thoughts and work to help explore this scientific theory. Attempting to do something that has never been done before, they closely follow a family of urban raccoons as they navigate the complex world of a big city.

20

American Experience Bill Clinton is a biography of a president who rose from a broken childhood in Arkansas to become one of the most successful politicians in modern American history. Part 1: Monday, Feb. 20 at 8 pm Part 2: Tuesday, Feb. 21, at 7 pm and Monday, Feb. 27 at 8 pm

23

Feeding Minds: Texas Takes on Hunger and Obesity examines how hunger and obesity coexist, the challenges Texas communities face regarding these issues, and solutions that can be employed to combat them. Thursday, Feb. 23, at 8 pm
